At El Beneficio Cafe #2, located in the heart of Coyoacán, Mexico City, the menu offers a delightful range of dishes that cater to all tastes, from hearty breakfasts to light snacks and satisfying sandwiches. Whether you're enjoying a relaxed morning or a quick bite during lunch, there's something for everyone.

Breakfast Delights

Start your day right with El Beneficio Cafe #2's breakfast options, which feature a mix of classic Mexican and international flavors. The "Waffles El Beneficio" is a standout item, offering a perfect balance of crispy edges and soft, fluffy centers. Paired with syrup and your choice of toppings, it's a sweet way to begin your meal. If you prefer something with a bit more warmth and comfort, the "Pan francés estilo carmel" (French Toast with caramel) is a delicious choice, featuring golden-brown slices drizzled in rich caramel sauce.

For egg lovers, El Beneficio Cafe #2 offers a variety of options. The "Huevos al gusto" (eggs cooked to your liking) are a customizable favorite, while "Huevos al horno" (baked eggs) provide a savory, satisfying start to the day. For a more indulgent option, the "Huevos Benedictinos" (Eggs Benedict) is an absolute must-try. Served on an English muffin with perfectly poached eggs and rich hollandaise sauce, it's a decadent and comforting dish.

For the Little Ones

The cafe also caters to younger guests with a special menu for children under 12 years. In the morning, kids can enjoy a simple yet tasty "Huevito al gusto" (egg cooked to their liking) or "Enfrijoladitas," a kid-friendly take on the traditional enfrijoladas (tortillas with a savory bean sauce). These dishes are perfect for little ones who are looking for something satisfying and delicious.

When it's time for lunch, the children's menu continues with options like "Tiritas de pollo empanizado" (breaded chicken strips) and "Mini baguettes" filled with tasty fillings. These mini baguettes are great for small appetites but still pack a punch with flavors that kids love.

Savory Sandwiches

If you're in the mood for something savory, the sandwich options at El Beneficio Cafe #2 are simply irresistible. The "Baguette de jamón serrano y queso" (serrano ham and cheese baguette) offers a delightful combination of rich, cured ham and melting cheese, all tucked into a crispy baguette. For those who love a variety of deli meats, the "Baguette de carnes frías y queso" (cold cuts and cheese baguette) is a hearty option that satisfies.

The "Baguette de atún" (tuna baguette) and the "Baguette de filete de cerdo a la florence" (Florence-style pork fillet baguette) offer an extra layer of variety, with fresh tuna or tender pork fillet as the main attraction. The "Baguette de pollo" (chicken baguette) provides a lighter, protein-packed choice for those seeking a simpler, yet flavorful sandwich.

For Snacking

If you're just looking for a quick snack, El Beneficio Cafe #2 has plenty of tasty treats to satisfy your cravings. The "Papas paprika" (paprika fries) are a great option for those who love a bit of spice with their fries. They're crispy, perfectly seasoned, and pair beautifully with any of the dips offered. Speaking of dips, the "Guacamole" and "Hummus casero" (homemade hummus) are excellent choices for anyone in the mood for something creamy and fresh. The guacamole is made with ripe avocados, lime, and just the right amount of seasoning, while the homemade hummus brings a smooth, savory flavor that is sure to delight.

At El Beneficio Cafe #2, the menu is filled with flavors that cater to all tastes, offering something delicious for breakfast, lunch, or a quick snack. Whether you're here for a leisurely meal or a simple pick-me-up, the cafe provides a cozy atmosphere paired with high-quality dishes that bring the best of Mexican and international cuisine to your table.
